SINGULARITY

Roots are the small pieces of the past bound to you for ever. They form part of the essence of the present and the future. They are the beginning, the basis of a way of being, of an idea that takes shape, and of a shape that becomes reality.

Through a choice of exclusive materials and great care taken over the design aesthetics, the new collection from Clara Home, UMANO, shows this personality and strength of principles, while not losing sight of the combination of furniture that will last and the latest technological advances. An unbeatable way of combining and contrasting items of the highest quality with the needs of modern-day life.

Les racines sont les petits morceaux du passé qui vous sont liés à jamais. Ils font partie de l'essence du présent et de l'avenir. Ils sont le début, la base d'une manière d'être, d'une idée qui prend forme et d'une forme qui devient réalité.

A travers un choix de matériaux exclusifs et un grand soin apporté à l'esthétique du design, la nouvelle collection de Clara Home, UMANO, témoigne de cette personnalité et de la force de ses principes, sans perdre de vue la combinaison de meubles qui durera et les dernières technologies avancées.
